

OFS Newsletter Reflection – April 2018
submitted by: Geneva Park

First of all, I wish you all a Happy and blessed Easter Season! I want to thank you for your prayers for my father, Colonel (ret) George S. Webb, who peacefully passed away on Sunday, March 18, 2018. I came across a few beautiful reflections/prayers that I wanted to share that remind us to be prepared for our own death and to pray for the souls of those who have died. I ask for your continued prayers for my Dad's soul.

Cardinal Newman's Prayer

My Lord and Savior, support me in my last hour in the strong arms of your sacrament and by the power of your consolations. Let the absolving words be said over me, and the holy oil sign and seal me: and let your own body be my food, and your blood my sprinkling, and let me Mother, Mary, breathe on me, and my angel whisper peace to me. And my glorious saints and my own patrons smile upon me that, in them all and through them all, I may receive the gift of perseverance, and die as I desire to live-in your church, in your service and in your love. Amen.

Remember the Departed

Christian hope is not solely individual, it is also always a hope for others. Our lives are profoundly linked, one to the other, and the good and the bad that each of us does always affects others too. Hence, the prayer of a pilgrim soul in the world can help another soul that is being purified after death. This is why the Church invites us to pray for our beloved deceased, and to pause at their tombs in the cemeteries.

Rule 17

In their family they should cultivate the Franciscan spirit of peace, fidelity, and respect for life, striving to make of it a sign of a world already renewed in Christ.

By living the grace of matrimony, husbands and wives in particular should bear witness in the world to the love of Christ for his Church. They should joyfully accompany their children on their journey by providing them a simple and open Christian education and being attentive to the vocation of each child.

Mary, Star of Hope, renders our faith in eternal life stronger and more authentic, and supports our prayer of suffrage for our deceased brothers and sisters. - Pope Benedict XVI

Your Loved One

Your loved ones are very safe in My Keeping. Learning and loving and working, theirs is a life of happiness and progress. They live to serve, and serve they truly do. They serve Me and those they love. Ceaselessly they serve.

But their ministrations, so many, so diverse, you see no more than those in My time on earth in human form could have seen the angels who ministered unto Me in the wilderness.

How often mortals rush to earthly friends who can serve them in so limited a way, when the friends who are freed from the limitations of humanity can serve them so much better, understand better, protect better, plan better, and even plead better their cause with Me.

You do well to remember your friends in the Unseen. Companying with them the more you live in this Unseen World the gentler will be your passing when it comes. Earth's troubles and difficulties will seem, even now, less overwhelming as you look, not at the things that are seen but at the real, the Eternal Life.

"And this is Life Eternal that we may know Thee, the Only True God, and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent."

Learning to know Me draws that Kingdom very near, and in Me, and through Knowledge of Me, the dear ones there become very near and dear.

(from God Calling)

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Fraternity Focus

Schedule for April Meeting:

8:30 Mass at St. Mary's

9-9:30 Continental Breakfast & Social Hour at Lyceum.

Please be sure to bring one or two non-perishable food items for sharing with members. Also, if possible for you, please consider bringing an item to share for the brunch to increase our sense of community.

9:30-12:30 Triennial Council Elections - Meeting will be conducted by the Region (note: 1. we need a quorum for elections to take place

2. Only those who are present when the meeting starts are allowed to vote.

Please be present before 9:30 a.m.

Upcoming Events

April 14 – Fraternity Elections

Fraternity Elections will take place on April 14. This will be our only activity scheduled for that meeting. Please pray for discernment in selecting new officers for our fraternity. Equally important, please attend and vote.

June 29 –1 Aug – Chapter of Mats

Will be held in Priest Field. A copy of an application is attached at the back of this edition.

Calendar for Christ House in 2018

Dates for Christ House this year will be March 17, May 19, June 16, August 18, October 20 and November 17. For further details, please see Sadie Martins or Marcia Campbell. If you have never tried it, please do so. It is a wonderful way to fulfill the needs of those less fortunate.
